

Want more consistency in your driving career?

Explore Schneider's wide selection of driving jobs

On top of having access to more new equipment that keeps you comfortable and safe and pay that rewards you for your hard work, Schneider drivers enjoy:

Variety

With a huge selection of opportunities available, you're sure to find a job with the home time, paychecks and predictability that you want.

Support

Schneider drivers get access to 24/7 maintenance support and nearly 10,000 parking spaces for tractors and trailers across our nationwide network of operating centers. Plus, thousands of additional spaces are available at our drop lots across the country.

Options

Due to the wide range of driving jobs available, you'll have no problem finding a good fit. Whether you want dry van, reefer, tanker, intermodal or flatbed, we've got it.

Consistency

Schneider drivers enjoy more stability in their schedules. With more shipments and freight options available, you'll have more opportunities to rack up miles!
