Roofing Academy

Your path to a lucrative, long-term career

Choosing your new career can be both exciting and intimidating. With so many possibilities, it wouldn't surprise us if you've never considered the roofing industry as an option.

What may surprise YOU, however, is that roofing isn't just "a job" anymore! Today, it's an innovative and widely respected industry comprised of well-paying, personally rewarding career opportunities — and the talented professionals leading the way are continuously looking to hire hard-working individuals of character and dedication such as yourself.

GAF can help you get there with our Roofing Academy education and career training program, which combines a real-world introduction to roofing with the practical hands-on training you need to become a sought-after candidate.

Want to earn a good salary? The average starting wage for a roofer in the U.S. is $39,970/year ($19.22/hour)*

Wish to work in a stable industry? Roofing jobs are expected to increase 12% by 2028 — faster than the average for all occupations!*

Want room to grow? Working in roofing gives you the freedom to choose your own path — and can even lead to careers in such areas as sales, estimating, and project management

Whatever your ambition, get there with GAF Roofing Academy.
